

City Walk and Lunch at the Pub

Dear members and friends,

The committee is proposing a walk in the City. Without our overseas tourists, Sydney is very quiet at the moment and it is a great opportunity to appreciate Sydney the way it was a few decades ago. Starting at Hyde Park, we will walk to Finger Warf, Woolloomooloo, then through the Botanical Garden towards the Opera House, Circular Quay, and finish at The Rocks where we will have lunch at the 'The Australian Heritage Hotel' located 100 Cumberland Street, The Rocks.

Sunday 27 June 2021 – 11am

We will meet at the main Fountain at Hyde Park, just opposite the Cathedral.

The closest train station is St-James.

Take with you the essentials.... water, sunscreen, hats, good walking shoes, etc.

We need to know the number of participants to make the booking at the Pub. We would appreciate if you confirm your participation by sending us an email and provide us with your contact details. cercleromand@gmail.com

In case of bad weather call Anne ph. 0422 105 639 on the morning or check the Cercle Romand website for a cancellation notice. <https://www.cercleromand.com.au/>

The committee is looking forward to meeting you soon.
